

Doctoral Program (Final Three-Year Program of the whole Doctoral Program)

1. Requirements for Completion

Students who have been enrolled in the Doctoral Program for three years or more, completed the required courses, earned eight or more credits, received the required research guidance and successfully review of their Doctoral thesis, and passed the necessary examinations, are recognized as having completed the Doctoral Program.

2. Curricula Table (for students enrolling in AY2014)

[Department of Nursing]

The years or semesters in which the courses listed in the table below are offered are subject to change.

Field:	Course	Credits	Year, Semester and Times offered						Notes
			First year		Second year		Third year
			Spring Semester	Fall Semester	Spring Semester	Fall Semester	Spring Semester	Fall Semester
Common	Basic Training	2	← 60 →
Fundamentals and Clinical Nursing	Special Lectures on Clinical Assessment	2	30					Students must earn at least 8 credits from courses including the following designated by their academic advisor: * Special Lectures for 2 credits * Specialized Studies for 2 credits * Research Work for 4 credits
	Specialized Studies on Clinical Assessment	2		60
	Special Lectures on Holistic Cancer Nursing	2	30
	Specialized Studies on Holistic Cancer Nursing	2		60
	Research Work	4	← 120 →
Nursing for Developmental Health	Special Lectures on Pediatric and Family Nursing	2	30
	Specialized Studies on Pediatric and Family Nursing	2		60
	Special Lectures on Community Health Nursing	2	30
	Specialized Studies on Community Health Nursing	2		60
	Research Work	4	← 120 →
	Total	26

* For Basic Training, it is possible to take courses of the same name offered at the Tsurumai Campus .

In addition to satisfying the regular course completion requirements, students seeking Total Health Planner internal recognition must earn 10 credits from five Total Health Planner courses.

Refer to the curricula table for the Initial Two-Year Program (Master's program) to see which courses are offered and can be taken.

Note that Total Health Planner courses are treated as Optional Courses and are not recognized as credits for course completion.